

Nomination Notice for the Position of Elected Director Greenlife Industry Australia Limited

Who can nominate?

Only Business Members and Association Members of Greenlife Industry Australia may nominate a director.

- Each eligible member may nominate one (1) person for election as a director.
- The nomination must be made by the member's Appointed Representative.

Who can be an Appointed Representative?

An Appointed Representative is the individual a member has formally authorised to represent them in GIA matters (including meetings, voting and nominations).

For Association Members, the Appointed Representative cannot be an employee or former employee of that association or of another association member.

EXAMPLES – how this works in practice

- Business Member: If GreenGrow Nursery is a Business Member of GIA and has named Jane Smith as its Appointed Representative, Jane is the only person who can sign and submit the nomination form on GreenGrow's behalf. GreenGrow can nominate one candidate.
- Association Member: If NGISA is an Association Member, its elected president (or whoever it has formally nominated as its Appointed Representative) is the only person who can sign and submit the form. NGISA's CEO or staff cannot take that role. NGISA can also nominate one candidate.
